CIRCULARS CALLING FOR MAY DAY REVOLUTION ARE FOUND

EVERY EFFORT BEING MADE BY FEDERAL AGENTS TO FIND ORIGINATORS

(United Press)
St. Paul, April 26—Circulars calling for a May day revolution of the workers were found by federal agents here today.

They were signed "The Communist Party of America."

Justice department agents and local police were making every effort to block further circulation of the pamphlets and to trace the originators of the plot.

"The May Day of revolution is here," read the circulars.

"We must destroy the United States government."

Federal agents appealed to the regular army officers at Fort Snelling to be prepared to aid in case of a demonstration in the Twin Cities on May Day. It was understood troops were being drilled with the idea that to suppress a riot may be necessary.

Federal agents declined to comment on the police suggestion that circulation of the pamphlets might be directly connected with the flight of Wm. "Big Bill" Haywood to Russia.

This incident however was taken here to mean that plans of communists throughout the world were being brought to a head.

It has been known for some time that there were branches of the communist organization in the Twin Cities and other spots in the northwest. They have been quiet however since last year here, and federal agents admitted that finding of the circulars came as a surprise.

Police refused to permit copies of the circulars to leave their hands. Reporters, however, were permitted to read them.

Some of the copies read "May Day of revolution."

"May day of revolution is here."

"May day when the workers of the world think of liberty. When they form their ranks as a challenge to the masters. When they come out in their millions and demonstrate the solidarity of the workers."

"This year the American workers must all demonstrate. They have good reasons. The bosses have challenged workers in the country. They have organized to crush workers. In their greed they intend to grind out more profits from the bones of the workers. They want to know who shall be master of America."

"Then let us show them who shall be master. Let us tell them we will change it by revolution. That is the only way—there is no other."

"In Europe the workers are carrying on their fight. With guns in hand they are fighting their governments. They want to set up a workers' government that shall represent only the workers."

"In Italy and Germany the workers face the guns of the governments ready to die to obtain their freedom from the brutal system. In England, France and Spain they are preparing for the day when the clash with the government must come."

"They are learning to use force against force—there is no other way. The revolution is spreading across the globe."

"Let us prepare."

"We American workers will no more stand the tyranny of the bosses and their government. We have had enough. The United States government stands for the bosses against the workers."

"The lawmaking body of the country is organizing its troops against the workers."

"Then we must destroy the United States government."

"We must destroy it and put in its place a workers' government."

"We must prepare for the revolution—there is no other way."

"The May day of revolution is here. Let us proclaim our solidarity for the workers of the entire world."

SERIES OF CRIMES ARE REPORTED AT INTNATL. FALLS

VETERAN FOUND MURDERED—MAN BLOWS HIMSELF TO PIECES, ETC.

(United Press)

International Falls, April 26—John McCochran, said to have attempted to land a row boat with liquor here Sunday night, died at midnight last night from wounds inflicted by Hugh Reedy, deputy sheriff. McCochran was intercepted by Reedy and started to row back across the river to Fort Francis. Reedy opened fire and McCochran was wounded three times.

Coroner Liljblad and County Attorney Jevne were holding an inquest today over the body of a man who blew himself to pieces with a charge of dynamite at a lumber camp fourteen miles south of here. Only parts of the limbs were found.

The body of Nestor Hill, an over-seas veteran, was found murdered on the bank of the Big Forks river near Big Falls late yesterday. He had just cashed a $350 bonus check a few hours before. The body had been buried in a pile of brush.

Verne Lampi was fatally shot Monday night by Axel Ronta after a robbery at the Ronta home. Lampi came into the yard and Ronta fired three shots believing him to be the bandit. Lampi died soon afterward.

GERMANY MUST SURRENDER GOLD RESERVE FRIDAY

OR THE FRENCH WILL OCCUPY THE RUHR VALLEY IMMEDIATELY

(United Press)

Paris, April 26—Regardless of the outcome of the German new reparations proposals, France will demand immediate occupation of the Ruhr valley if the reparation commission's demand for the surrender of the Reichbank's metal reserves is not met by Friday, it was officially stated today.

The reparations commission first asked Germany to place her entire metal reserve in the Reichsbank branches at Coblenz and Cologne. This was refused, and the commission now wants complete surrender of one billion gold marks by Friday.

The commission and the French government regard the ultimatum as outside of the general question of reparations.

Washington Receives German Note

Washington, April 26—The complete text of the German reparations note has been received at the state department it was announced today. Secretary of State Hughes took the communication under immediate consideration. It was assumed that Hughes brought the note to the attention of President Harding and the cabinet which met soon after receipt of the communication.

The note started coming late last night in fragments.

France Ready to Strike

Paris, April 26—France is ready to strike a blow May 1 which will force Germany to submit to peace treaty demands, Premier Briand declared today in the chamber of deputies.

Just after the chamber had voted confidence in his ministry 424 to 29 the premier took the floor and in an impassioned speech reviewed Germany's record of treaty default.

"We have made all preparations for a move May 1 which will give us the means of executing the treaty," he declared amid scenes of great enthusiasm.

New Offer Will Not Be Accepted

London, April 26—The new German reparations offer even if passed on to the allies by the United States will not be accepted in its entirety, according to belief of officials today. The British and French are understood to be very much opposed to any mediation if the reparations dispute by any "disinterested third party," such as Germany favors. Neither would it favor mediation by President Harding, it was believed.

The allies are becoming convinced that Germany will try to beloud the issue and press outside matters.

New Offer May Receive Response

Washington, April 26—Germany's new reparations offer bids fair to receive a favorable response by the United States government it was understood today.

While officials of the state department refrained from formal comment, the belief was predicted in responsible quarters that Germany's proposal contained the germ of a final settlement of the reparations tangle. Secretary Hughes took with him to the cabinet meeting today the complete text of the German note.

Take Up With Jap California Anti-Alien Land Laws

(By United Press)

Washington, April 26—Secretary of State Hughes has assured Baron Shidehara, the Japanese ambassador, that the state department will soon reopen negotiations on the California anti-alien land laws, it was understood here today. Hughes has not taken up the California question because of the press of other material. He also wants to acquaint himself with the allies' opinion of the issue before reopening negotiations.

Negotiations on this question during the Wilson administration were terminated with the agreement between Roland S. Morris, then American ambassador to Tokyo, and Baron Shidehara on a report recommending to their respective governments a plan for settlement of the dispute.

RETAIL BUTCHERS TAKING RAKE-OFF

WITH PRICES OF CATTLE AND HOGS BELOW PRE-WAR LEVEL —PRICES GO UP

J. L. O'SULLIVAN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, April 26—Retail butchers are now dipping their ladle into the gravy.

They are clinging to the bowl with vengeance, taking it from those who produce livestock and prepare it for the market.

With prices of all cattle and hogs down to pre-war level, the retail market still holds up and there is little prospect of the public getting any great benefit from the slump in livestock prices, according to retail dealers interviewed by the United Press today.

While prices of choice beef steers dropped to the lowest point in the last decade, there has been an advance of from one to two cents in the last two weeks for the best grades of beef.

The advance in beef quotations was explained by butchers who said there had been a strong demand due to scarcity. Packers had been killing no more than necessary and had little in storage, so as soon as the demand was felt it had an immediate effect on retail and wholesale prices of meat, but not on livestock.

Market quotations of livestock is far below pre-war level, so the responsibility of keeping up the retail prices cannot be placed on the producer.

Incendiary Fires Are Reported in Davenport

HARDING PLANS TO ASK INTERNATIONAL DISARMAMENT

BELIEVED THAT GREAT POWERS OF EUROPE AND ASIA WILL AGREE

(United Press)

Washington, April 26—The world is now nearer disarmament negotiations than it has ever been, it was believed today in circles close to President Harding. This was based on the information of the administration leaders that President Harding plans to propose an international disarmament conference within a few months.

His opinion was that the president's proposal will be eagerly accepted by the other great powers and that cessation of competition naval construction between Great Britain, Japan and the United States will follow.

Although the belief in congress was stronger today than it has ever been that disarmament discussions are in sight, the government naval appropriation bill was unchanged. Republican leaders backed by some democrats maintains that the United States must be prepared to be second to none in naval strength.

Disarmament Considered

Disarmament steps have been under serious consideration by President Harding and his advisors, it was learned today following the cabinet meeting.

The authoritative statement was made however that the administration sees no way to move at this time. Not only President Harding but the members of the cabinet are understood to be sympathetic toward suggestions of calling a disarmament conference, but the latest review of the situation by them disclosed conditions which they believe make it unadvisable to move definitely at this time.

The debate on the naval bill in the house at which members expressed the belief that a disarmament conference was not far away brought up the question in connection with today's cabinet meeting.

Skeleton of Man Found in Swamp Near Minneapolis

Minneapolis, April 26—Police were furnished another murder mystery today when two boys unearthed a skeleton in a swamp near the Minnesota golf club links.

A bullet had pierced the skull. The body had been buried in a shallow grave in the swamp not six feet from a walk where thousands of people have traveled.

The boys saw a small portion of the skull protruding. Investigation proved it to be the body of a man. Indications were the body had been in there more than a year.

SENATE CONSIDERS KNOX PEACE MOVE

RESOLUTION MERELY DECLARES PEACE, BINDING THE UNITED STATES TO NOTHING

L. C. MARTIN.

United Press Staff Correspondent.
Washington, April 26—The senate today took up the task of making peace with Germany and Austria. Its action, in which question the house must concur, is the prelude, so congressional leaders have told, to the whole Harding policy of establishing world peace upon a permanent foundation.

Senator Lodge, in calling up today the Knox peace resolution repealing the war between German and Austria, authorized by congress in 1917, set that program in motion. All congress has to do with the program, for the present at least, is to substitute a technical state of peace for the technical state of war which has been existing since the armistice ended actual hostilities more than two years ago.

The resolution, as reported by the foreign relations committee, binds the United States to nothing. It does not even hint of this government's policy toward the central powers, or any other foreign nation.

20 AMERICAN PATENTS ISSUED TO GERMAN KRUPP

INVESTIGATION WILL BE ASKED BY SENATOR JOHNSON AND PATENTS CANCELED

(United Press)

Washington, April 26—Investigation of the granting to Germany of twenty American patents since July may be asked in the senate by Senator Hiram Johnson of California, chairman of the patent committee and Senator Wadsworth of New York, chairman of the military affairs committee. The inquiry will likely result in legislation canceling the patents, it was indicated. Senators were aroused by a letter of Secretary of War Weeks disclosing these patents had been issued, and all assigned to Fred Krupp, the German ammunition maker.

GERMANY OFFERS TO PAY THE ALLIES 200 BILLION MARKS

FOR REPARATION PAYMENTS IN ITS NEW PROPOSALS JUST SUBMITTED

PAYMENTS TO BE SPREAD OVER A PERIOD OF FROM 30 TO 42 YEARS

Berlin, April 26—The payment by Germany of 200,000,000,000 gold marks (normally about $50,000,000,000) for reparations is, roughly, the proposal submitted by Germany for transmission to the allies, according to sources close to the government.

The payments will be spread over a period of from 30 to 42 years, or less, according to Germany's economic recovery.

Economic Pledges Held Offered

Economic pledges in the way of goods and participation in German industries are offered as guarantees, it is stated. The offer, it is indicated, inclines more toward the terms formulated by the allies at the Paris conference last winter than to the offer made by Germany at the London conference, which the allies summarily rejected.

Allies Demanded $56,000,000,000

The allies, under the decision reached in Paris in January, demanded that Germany pay 225,000,000,000 gold marks, or approximately $56,000,000,000, the payments to be spread over a period of 42 years. Germany's exports, in addition would bear an export duty of 12 per cent to go to the allies, for an identical period. In the German counter proposals submitted in London on March 1, Dr. Walter Simons, the German foreign minister, offered what the allied experts estimated to amount to approximately $12,500,000,000, of which Germany claimed $5,000,000,000 had already been paid, leaving the actual German offer about $7,500,000,000. This offer was coupled with the conditions that upper Silesia should remain German and that free commercial privileges throughout the world should be restored to Germany.

Germany's counterproposals of reparations, it was learned, refrain from proposing the assumption by Germany of the allied debts to the United States.

Had $2,000,000 For 19 Days

(By United Press)

Detroit, Mich., April 25—Henry Ford, clerk in a Detroit court, recently had $2,000,000 for 19 days and didn't know it.

He is no relative of the multimillionaire automobile manufacturer. In fact, he doesn't even know him. But both belong to the same lodge of Masons and both deposit in the same bank.

One bright morning Ford—the less famous—opened his mail and found a credit on his bank slip for the two million dollars. While this was most pleasing, it embarrassed him, for when he hustled to the bank, he learned the bank had discovered the error and had scratched off the sum. The money was the property of the motor king.

Similarity of names has led to many other complications, too. The home of Ford—the clerk—is constantly besieged by foreign women pleading with the supposed auto manufacturer to allow their husbands to retain the jobs. Almost daily he receives letters asking for charitable gifts.

Recently the clerk received a burial certificate from Connecticut filled out in regular form, designating his place of burial as "Hell" and his undertaker as the Divine Being. It addressed him to "stop meddling in other people's business."

LEAN DAYS FOR THE COFFEE KINGS; MARKETS GLUTTED

(United Press)

Sao Paulo, Brazil, April 26—These may be lean months in the coffee industry but one sees few surface evidences of hard times here in the "Coffee Capital of the World."

The streets are full of imported automobiles—the new ones chiefly from the United States—and from behind the shaded limousine glasses women in Paris gowns stare at one through the inevitable lorgnette. The fathers of these same women may have come from Italy in the steerage—but Brazil is a liberal country and money speaks a universal language.

Under the surface, however, one catches now and then a glimpse of the "Fazendeiro's" troubles. The new crop is just coming on and last year's production—the greatest in the history of the state, which produces some 60 per cent of the world's coffee output—still is largely unsold.

The loan just floated by a syndicate of London bankers, part of which is to be sold in New York, is expected to finance the present harvest, but it cannot supply a profitable market, and that is what the coffee men must have if they are to keep going.

Prices in most of the big foreign markets, the coffee men tell you, are below the actual cost of production and markets are glutted at even these prices.

However, the Paulistas aren't losing a lot of sleep. They have pulled out of worse scrapes than this, they remark with a smile, and things will break their way sure inside of the next six months.

The whole coffee situation is much the same as the sugar crisis in Cuba. During the war everybody wanted coffee and price was no object. Fazendas doubled the number of their trees, prices soared and everybody had money to burn. Like the Cubans, some of the Brazilian Fazendeiros burned it and these are the people who are suffering most now.

Others—including many wealthy old Italian immigrants—stuck to the woolen sock of Europe and are still with money to spare.

NORTHWEST NEWS

Make Minnesota Vacation Mecca
St. Paul, April 26—With additional funds from the legislature to work with, the Minnesota Land and Lakes attraction board today set out to make Minnesota the vacation mecca of the country during the next two years.

The Ten Thousand Lakes of Minnesota association working under the board has charge of the publicity and other functions which are designed to attract not only vacationists but homeseekers and prospective land purchasers.

The legislature appropriated $40,000 for the biennium which is $10,000 more than the last legislature appropriated. This is supplemented by contributions from all sections of the state which run the fund to about $50,000 yearly.

Popular lake resorts of the state are looking forward to a big season and at several places new cottages and hotels are being erected.

Fix Liability Compensation

Bismarck, April 26—The Workmen's Compensation bureau will conduct a hearing here today to fix the liability for the death of Anker Larson, killed in the Dittner mine near Velva last fall. At the time of the accident the mine had not complied with the requirements of the workmen's compensation act. Mr. Dittner contended that he was not in charge of the mine having rented it to Henry Mann, who claims he had not completed the deal for taking over the mine when Larson was killed.

Study of "Instinct."

It is a matter of some dispute just to what extent the actions of animals are determined by pure unreasoning instinct. It has been stated that a frog will snap at any small moving object regardless of its character, and of hunger or satiety. Some experiments seem to indicate that the frog is capable of greater discriminations than has been credited to him. Thus, for example, a frog was offered hairy caterpillars, which it promptly seized, and with equal promptness spit out again. But after about four to seven such injudicious attempts the frog had learned his lesson, and thereafter refused similar fare. In another experiment earthworms were so connected with a source of electricity that the frog received a shock on touching the worm. The frog duly devoured the prey, and showed no sign of discomfort. However, he refused for seven days to touch another earthworm. Similarly, the frog would be taught to avoid worms in which oil of cloves had been spread, although such "doctored" prey was not spit out, but only digested.

Little Money Saver Says:

When we buy paint for your buildings, you will save if you buy it by the square foot instead of by the gallon. You buy paint to cover and protect a surface, therefore the paint that will cover most square feet per dollar invested, is the cheapest paint if it cost $50.00 per gallon. Remember this when you paint this spring and see that your painter uses BLOOD'S PAINT.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF THE CITY

Presbyterian Sunday School
Sunny weather isn't good for Sunday school attendance!

The class under Mr. Erickson met last Wednesday night with Ray Paine. The boys had a good time and have named themselves "D. I. N." asking us to guess what those letters stand for. Knowing the class and teacher, we are sure they stand for something good.

The "Weiner Roast" planned for last Friday evening but which was postponed because of the rain will be held this Wednesday. The D. Y. B. class are anxious that all be out and on time. Remember the place, and the time, 6:30.

There will be no prayer meeting this week because the pastor will be out of town.

Sunday at the morning service children may be presented for baptism. Those wishing to have this rite of the church administered will please notify the pastor not later than Saturday noon. Baptism will take place just before the sermon and arrangements have been made so that the children may be taken care of at the manse should the parents desire to remain for the rest of the service.

Thursday evening, May 5, at 8 o'clock, installation services will be held in the church. At this time Rev. Kelly will formally be made pastor of the church. Rev. Murdock McLeod of Minneapolis, Rev. Kelly of Ironton, Dr. Ward of Minneapolis and Dr. Hall of Moorhead will be here and take part.

First Congregational Bible School
The long looked for repairs and changes to the church, are now going on. C. B. White has the basement all dug, and this summer will see a fine sanitary, up to date, basement, with Bible class rooms, kitchen, auditorium, new heating and all that goes with it.

While the repairs are going on, the church services and Bible school are being held in the court house.

The time for May, June and July has been changed as follows: preaching service 10 a. m. Bible school 11 a. m.

CHILD WELFARE BOARD REPORT GIVEN

The work of the executive secretary of the Child Welfare Board during the month of March 1921 has been largely one of becoming acquainted with members of the Board, officials, state laws and general policies to say nothing of locating the various communities and discovering the best means of transportation to these different places.

Considerable time was also spent in going through the accumulated correspondence, sorting and classifying it, in securing the necessary office supplies, planning a card catalogue and getting the records on hand in proper shape and filed. For the time being a make-shift file is being used as it is understood that the filing is built in at the new office.

Trips were made to Deerwood, Crosby, Ironton and vicinity relative to pending cases. The people of the range towns are interested in the work which the Board hopes to be able to do and express their willingness to cooperate in any way.

A trip was also made to Cross Lake and the neighboring country. Some very interesting cases were discovered. The need for board and working homes was brought out most emphatically, and in connection with this the value of an emergency fund

Pathe Actuelle Wins Out in Spirited American Legion Contest

Selected For New Post Club Room
After a Rigid and Exciting
Test

Triumphs on all Points and Committee Decides on a Sweeping
Vote of 5 to 1

A recent communication from the Wright and Wilhelmy Company, the Pathe distributors of Omaha, Neb., contains a graphic account of a demonstration of phonographs by the American Legion Post at Rockwell City, Iowa, which resulted in the selection of the Actuelle by a vote of 5 to 1.

The Pathe contestant was Mr. Fred Beauchamp, the local dealer, and the decision of the committee appointed to select an instrument for the new club room, was made after a rigid test in all of the qualities of volume rhythm and tone.

In referring to the competition the Calhoun Country Republican says: "Fred Beauchamp, local distributor of the Pathe phonographs, the past week sold the local post of the American Legion a handsome Pathe Actuelle machine for the new club room recently opened by the Post. The order was secured by Mr. Beauchamp as the result of a competitive exhibition and test of several makes of machines, held the club room Monday evening before the executive committee of the Post, the several dealers of the city having been invited to show their machines and compete in the playing of a certain series of records. The volume and resonance of tone of the Actuelle were the points upon which the decision in its favor was made, these being essential points in a large hall."

that might be used for the temporary care of these children. Ultimately the money expended in making it possible for young children to have a chance will be returned a hundred fold by better citizenship and better homes in the future.

Pegnot has its problems also. In this little village the Board has an opportunity to do a piece of constructive work looking to the future life and happiness of two little girls. Children are largely influenced by their environment, especially the moral development. Flowers are the result of the seed and the soil. Little is expected of a seed in a poor soil. Why should so much more be expected of the little child growing in a sterile soil?

A number of investigations were made in Brainerd both pertaining to local cases and for other agencies. The Board is cooperating with similar organizations in other counties of the State and Nation. In all 180 calls were made and 27 letters written.

EX-PRESIDENTIAL PENSIONS

Interest in pensions for ex-presidents has been aroused again by the introduction in the Senate and House of bills for that purpose. The matter had fallen into disregard of late years because of the demonstrated capacity of ex-presidents to take care of themselves financially. There is no question now of such capacity on the part of either Mr. Taft or Mr. Wilson. There is also recognition of the fact that old standards have changed, and a retiring president is not expected to withdraw entirely from active life and content himself with the role of "sage."

It is not, however, merely a question of earning a living or continuing active in public and private life. Advocates of the pension idea point out that any man who has held the highest office in the United States occupies thereafter a special position of dignity and responsibility. He remains a public character, and cannot escape from that character. His voice and example carry weight in matters of national import. It is argued that the country should make such provision for him that he will be neither compelled nor tempted to undertake any kind of private employment which might interfere with his highest service to the country as a semi-official adviser in national affairs.

There are kinds of private activity, perfectly proper in themselves, which might conceivably interfere with that role. It is urged, therefore, that the country could well afford to pay any ex-president a good salary, under the guise of a pension, as a sort of retaining fee.

The only serious criticism of the present proposal seems to be that $10,000 a year is too little—that the amount had better be $25,000. That is reasonable. If any pension is conferred at all, it should be one on which an ex-president could live in a comfortable and dignified way befitting his position.

GAME AND FISH
LAWS ARE CHANGED

Game and fish laws passed by the recent legislative session of 1921 were not numerous but included a few important changes, including the following:

Prairie Chicken—An open season was provided for 1921—September 16th to October 1st inclusive—to be closed on alternate years hereafter. Bag limit 9 birds a day, 18 birds for the season. Days permitted to be used in chicken hunting.

Deer and Moose—Season shortened to 11 days—November 10th to 20th inclusive, every year—no restriction as to age or sex of deer. Metal locking seal required to be attached to each carcass.

Fish—Angling season for all fish except trout and black bass to open May 15th instead of May 1. Trout and bass unchanged. Size limit on crappies increased from 6 to 7 inches in length—20 crappies per day.

License Fees—Resident big game hunting and non-resident angling license fees raised from $1.00 to $2.00. Other license fees unchanged. Non-resident license required for spearing as well as angling.

Fish House—Season for use of fish houses to open December 1st instead of December 15th.

Fox Farms—Trespassing on the grounds used for breeding of foxes made a misdemeanor.

Importation of Game—Game or fish legally taken in another state or country may be brought into Minnesota at any time on proof of legality. Retaining tags required for game.

Offering to Buy Game—Made illegal—same as offering to sell.

Improvement of Lakes—Funds derived from inland seining of "rough fish" appropriated for use in constructing dams installing screens, excavating channels and making other similar improvements in lakes and rivers.

Interstate Fishing Seasons—Commissioner required to fix opening and closing dates for taking fish interstate water (except in the Mississippi river) to conform to adjoining states.

Commercial Fishing—Continuous open season provided for commercial fishing in Mississippi river between St. Anthony Falls and foot of Lake St. Croix and in Minnesota river, Minnesota river opened for such fishing to Mankato.

Bills to shorten the partridge season, provide a close season on quail, to raise the wolf bounty, to allow traps, providing for public shooting grounds, to allow limited duck shooting in refuges, to allow nets in shallow lakes, to allow spearing of pickerel in spawning season, to repeal provision for "Governor's Orders", to amend confiscation law, to devote proceeds of carp fishing to road improvements, to shorten season for taking fur bearing animals and numerous other measures proposed, failed to pass.

About 75 bills, including many duplicates, affecting game and fish were introduced, but only 12 were passed and became laws.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Lyceum
"Puppets of Fate"—what an intriguing photoplay! And Viola Dana—what a perfect actress for the role of poor little Sorrentina Palombara the abandoned Italian wife, just the right one to portray the felicitous, dramatic scenes of this story, from the pen of the well-known novelist and short story writer, Donn Byrne.

This opinion will be echoed by all who see "Puppets of Fate," a Metro special, which had its first showing yesterday at the Lyceum theatre, where it began a run of two days.

In presenting "Madonnas and Men" at the New Park theatre last evening Manager Workman offers to the amusement seeking public of this city one of the finest and most absorbing feature pictures ever filmed. sueded the Emperor to give up his just for bloody entertainment by telling him a story of the future.

It is the Soothsayer who looks into the future, sees what happens to a nation that holds no respect for womanhood and then details a tale of modern times that parallels the doings in ancient Rome. The modern story reveals the frantic search of a father for his lost daughter. The young girl has been taken from her home by a millionaire as part of his plan of revenge and is about to be forced into a degrading marriage when her father finds her. Here is enacted a scene the like of which has never before been seen on stage or screen. It is, however, only one of the many thrilling episodes in this gigantic drama.

Prominent in the cast of "Madonnas and Men" are Evan Burrows Fontaine, Edmond Lowe, Faire Blaney, Anders Randolph, Raye Dean and Gustav Von Seyffritz while thousands of extras are employed in many of the massive scenes.

Had a Long Family Tree.

Queen Elizabeth was a victim to the weakness for long pedigrees. Among the treasures of Hatfield is a genealogical tree, forty-two feet long, which was drawn up for Elizabeth, tracing her descent back to Adam. In the more modern portion of the pedigree admirably painted coats of arms are attached to all the names, together with the dates of birth and death. It is curious to note that Queen Elizabeth's coats of arms filled up one side only. The other side is left blank presumably for the arms of the husband whom it was thought her majesty would some time or other design to accept.

Volstead Enters Bill Prohibiting Beer as Medicine

Washington, April 26—A bill prohibiting beer as a medicine was introduced yesterday by Chairman A. J. Volstead of the house judiciary committee. The measure, designed to tighten up the Volstead law in view of an opinion by former Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, would not prohibit use of wine as a medicine, but re-enact in more specific language the injunction that such prescription must be limited to actual needs for medicinal use.

Another provision would direct the prohibition director to hold down the importation and manufacture of liquor to actual requirements of the people for nonbeverage use and permit the importation and manufacture to supply current needs after the present liquor supply in the United States has been exhausted.

SOME DAIRIES ARE FOUND INSANITARY

State Dairy and Food Inspector Inspected 31 Dairies, Only Six up to State Standard

3 DAIRIES ORDERED CLOSED

These Three Were Found So Filthy That the Inspector Forbade their Continuing in Business

While the milk ordinance is under consideration the results of the recent partial inspection of Brainerd's dairies by the state inspector, assisted by the city health nurse, using the city health car as a conveyance, may prove interesting.

Thirty-one dairies were inspected, only six of these passed the state inspection and proved to be up to the standard.

Three dairies were closed entirely as they were so filthy that the inspector forbade their continuing.

Twelve were found to be insanitary in various degrees and were ordered to clean up at once or go out of business.

Eight were complying in other requirements but bottled the milk in kitchens where it absorbed the odor of the home. This is regarded as dangerous especially whenever sickness is in the home and the practice is prohibited by the state.

Of some of the insanitary dairies the following were some of the brief comments of the inspector: "Must clean up very insanitary"; "very dirty, is not to sell milk until place is cleaned"; "Very dirty, must clean up"; "Insanitary"; "Dirt found in milk".

It is a curious situation, which permits two of the places closed to sell cream to a creamery. The inspector said this was beyond his jurisdiction.

Those who have been insistent upon a milk ordinance have taken such a position because of conditions outlined above. It has been two years since a state inspector inspected Brainerd and he did not have time to visit all of Brainerd dairies this time. He did inspect all the larger ones but they were the ones least in need of inspection.

The only objection raised thus far has been the fear that the cost of milk would be raised. The Echo stock farm is authority for the statement that six of the larger dairies state that the ordinance will not add to the cost of the milk they produce.

The Echo Stock Farm dairy consulted W. W. Blakey, F. Fredstrom, Fred Larson, Iver Storstad and Andrew Erickson all large dairies and is authority for the statement that the ordinance will not cause the increase of the price of milk. Dr. Archibald of the state board of health informed the committee from the council that the adoption of the ordinance by other cities had not increased the cost of milk but it had given the cities adopting the ordinance a cleaner milk supply.

His friend, who tasted fish, declared that D— was most unreasonable. "Why, there's nothing nicer than bacon!" he said. ## BRAINERD'S OLDEST STORIES TODAY

The man examined his right eye. He knew George was a crackjack at trap shooting and so he said:

"Too much shooting has just put your right eye on the blink. Got to stop it," said the oculist.

And then the oculist collapsed.

They have taken all the teeth away from George Trent, Sr. He was down at Minneapolis wondering what he could eat without teeth and strolling into Schieck's cafe where Guelker and Bill are on the staff, the latter having at one time conducted a flourishing restaurant in Deerwood, he spied Guelker and asked him what was on the bill of fare that a toothless man could get away with.

A smile of beatific brand and large proportions illuminated Guelker's face and he brought George a large bowl of mutton broth. It was so good Mr. Trent had three more.

South Sixth street, after being turned upside down with sewer work, is still unsettled.

Tourists coming to Brainerd are liable to lose all the good opinion of the town gained by that advertising in the Minneapolis Tribune Sunday edition, having it all shaken out between city limits and city hall.

Credit Given to Shakespeare.

Although wags might have associated the word benedict, meaning a married man, as being cognate with benediction, usually thought of as coming at the end; and Latin students, not conversant with Shakespeare, might have reasoned that as a matter of fact it comes from "bene" (well) and "dicere" (to speak), authorities on such subjects attribute the coinage of the word from the bard's character of Benedict, a wild, witty and light-hearted young lord of Padua in "Much Ado About Nothing."

NEWSPAPER MEN MEET IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

(United Press)
New York, April 26.—The American Newspaper Publishers' association meeting in annual convention tomorrow, will be faced by the most important problems by which it has been confronted in years. These include:
Wage adjustments.
Postal rates.
Taxation.
The threat of a strike in the newspaper printing industry.
Maintenance of advertising scales.
The newspaper business, in common with other industries, has reached a point where wage adjustments are a vital necessity, an insurance against actual losses, it was pointed out today by some publishers. While this is the question which must be worked out individually by each publisher, it will receive the benefit, at the convention, of the research of the association's labor bureau.

I. C. C. Gives Burlington Road Permission to Make a Big Bond Issue

(By United Press)
St. Paul, April 26.—Refund of $215,000,000 of the Burlington road bonds maturing July 1, will be complete long before that date, officials of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific said today. The latter two roads yesterday were given permission by the interstate commerce commission to issue $230,000,000 joint fifteen year bonds. New York bankers have already agreed to market their entire issue, it was said. The bonds will bear two per cent more interest than the issue maturing.

Lower courts of Wisconsin decided in favor of the company but the court reversed the decision.

Transfer Prohibition Activities to Justice Dept.

(United Press)

Minneapolis, April 26.—Attorneys for Frank Nemec, Chicago motion picture man, today were preparing an appeal from Judge Molyneux's decision dismissing his suit for $200,000 damages against Sheriff Earl Brown. Nemec sued for damages because Sheriff Brown released him to Chicago authorities Feb. 4 in spite of a restraining order from the state supreme court. Governor Freus had already honored extradition papers.

Benny Leonard Wants To Win Three Pug Crowns

HENRY FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, April 26.—Benny Leonard wants to be three champions all at the same time.

Having fought himself clean of opponents in the lightweight class, the champion would like to annex the welter and middleweight crowns.

Since the days of Bob Fitzsimmons, two and three way champions have been unknown models, but Leonard thinks he can do it.

Then as the king of three divisions, he would retire, the greatest of all modern fighters.

Leonard is not alone in thinking that the welterweight championship is his if he ever gets a chance at it, at least in a year or so.

Jack Britton, the greatest of present day boxers, reigns the king over a class that is sadly shy of strong competition. Jack is the oldest ringsman in the game and although he persistently makes that adage about "youth being served," look foolish, he can't hang on forever.

But when it comes to the middleweight class, Leonard may have some elastic confidence merely on a weight proposition.

Benny works on a sliding weight scale, a welterweight normally, a lightweight when he has to be. He has shown, whenever called upon the past winter, that he can make 135 pounds, but he is not too strong at that weight.

"I would have been willing to meet Mike O'Dowd when he was champion because he was made for a good boxer," Leonard says. "Johnny Wilson, with his southpaw style, would be just as easy. I'm sure I could at least outpoint him a decision bout."

Outside of Rocky Kansas, Leonard hasn't an opponent worth consideration in the lightweight class. Lew Fendler and Willie Jackson make exorbitant financial demands to cover their fear of the champion and Pinky Mitchell, who is coming fast, is not ready for him.

Jack Britton and Johnny Wilson are both in the same fix. Ted Lewis spells about all there is in the lightweight field and O'Dowd and Mike Gibbons are the only formidable middleweights.

Regardless of the culmination of his extension of glory plans, Leonard says he wants to retire from the ring.

It isn't so much that he is tired of boxing, but he wants to get away from the spotlight and avoid the demands that are made on a champion outside of the ring.

He admits that he has earned a fortune in the ring so that he can retire any time. "I'm not as well off financially as generally considered. The fans don't know that it costs me over $75,000 a year to live," he says.

British Food Ministry Had Profit Balance

BY AUSTIN WEST
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, April 26.—The ministry of food ceased to exist March 31st, but although many attacks have been made on the government for the continuance of control so long after the war, the critics have not been slow to praise the excellent work done by this department.

Due largely to the energy of the late Lord Rhonda, the food ministry proved to be the greatest trading organization which had ever existed in any country. In its five years existence, the ministry handled goods to the enormous value of 1,200,000,000 pounds sterling, exclusive of wheat and sugar which, although nominally under the ministry's control, operated under separate Royal Commissions. The working expenses amounted to but thirteen shillings and four pence per hundred pounds worth of food bought and sold, and a clear profit of roughly one million pounds was made for the nation.

The retiring food minister, Charles A. McCurdy, gave the United Press the following figures on commodities handled during the whole period of control in pounds sterling:
Butter, cheese and milk products 125,856,000
Meat supplies 475,880,000
Cattle feeding-stuffs, oils, oil-seeds, fats 193,488,000
Tea, dried fruit, sundries 80,180,000
Bacon, hams, lard 292,448,000
Vegetables, fruits and preservation 32,148,000
Total 1,200,000,000

To this total must be added the purchases made by the Royal Wheat commission, which amounted to another 1,200 millions for the United Kingdom and 250 millions for allied and neutral countries.

BIG BUSINESS SETS PACE FOR JAPAN'S FLEET

BY HENRY W. KINNEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Tokio, April 26.—The session of the Japanese Diet which is now drawing to a close, has been remarkable mainly for the passing of the tremendous budget whereby half of the country's funds will be spent for the army and navy.

The navy program went through without any great trouble. The House defeated a resolution to cut it, and the Peers only attached to the budget a mild warning that in future more care must be exercised in the way of economy. A few business men, of what may be called the second rank, have protested at the folly of Japan's spending her money on a futile naval race with the United States, which can afford to outbuild her hopelessly without greatly feeling the strain, while Japan, especially during the present depression, cannot possibly bear the burden of further taxes.

The few big business houses which control Japan's commerce and industries have, however, not been heard from regarding economy, as they are the ones to profit greatly by the adventures in foreign lands, such as Saghalien, Kwantung, Manchuria, which Japanese militarism makes possible. Until these business heavyweights take a hand, the voice of the lightweights will remain feeble, significant only as a forerunner of thought along these lines. As the great naval program involves passing of appropriations until 1923 before its completion, and after that for renewals, it is, however, quite possible that growing realization of the fact that Japan is biting off more than she can chew may curb the navalists.

The responsible newspapers speak hopefully of a possible reduction of armaments by agreement between America, Great Britain and Japan, while the jingo press continues to harp on the danger of allowing America to act as "the bully of the Pacific."

The navy department has let loose an inspired, but entirely unauthoritative statement, to the effect that it is willing to consider reduction of armaments if other powers reduce armaments also. But in all this it is plain that they expect the other powers to reduce to such an extent that Japan will have a fleet out of all proportion to the position it now occupies in comparison with America and England.

Vote Or Be Fined Is Law In Belgium

Brussels, April 26.—From eight in the morning to one in the afternoon on Sunday, city and borough council elections take place all over Belgium. The voting plan is that of proportional representation, by means of which every party obtaining a minimum ratio of votes in proportion to the number of voters, secures a proportionate representation.

Voting is compulsory in Belgium. If you do not fulfill this obligation of citizenship, you will be fined a dollar. If you offend like that a second time, you will be fined two. Under the new tentative suffrage law, women must help to fill the ballot box under same rules as men. In every big city there are women candidates. The three main parties are all welcoming feminine cooperation, for the local councils wield such wide powers in this country that they come into the domestic life of the citizens at every turn.

Little Mother Happy Again

"For the past nine years I have been very much distressed with bloating and stomach trouble due to constipation since I was a child. No medicine gave me more than temporary relief. I got so bad I was afraid I would have to leave my three little children. But since taking a course of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy two years ago I have been entirely well; no constipation or other trouble." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Real Republican Prayer.
On March 4 the school children of Terre Haute were instructed to utter a two-minute prayer for Mr. Harding. One primary teacher told her children all about Mr. Harding, the position he was taking and all the responsibilities he was to have. So at eleven o'clock she said: "Now, children, fold your hands and bow your heads. This is the time we're going to pray."
But up went the hand of a very ardent little Methodist Sunday school scholar. "Please, teacher, may I lead in prayer?" he asked.
His teacher nodded, and he uttered his earnest little prayer. "Dear Mr. Harding—Please bless us and keep us forever and forever. Amen."—Indianapolis News.

How to Avoid Colds.

Before you leave a warm room and open the street door to go out, always remember to shut your mouth. Keep it closed until you have walked briskly for about ten minutes. Then, if you keep on walking, you may talk as much as you please.

If you keep your mouth closed and walk briskly, the air can only reach the lungs by a circuit of the nose and head and become warm before reaching them, thus causing no derangement of these very important organs. On the other hand, large draughts of cold air dash directly in upon the lungs, and in a few days you wonder how you caught that awful cold.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.
